

Roadmap to ELAP Accreditation: Application Requirements

The State Water Resources Control Board adopted new CA ELAP regulations, which take effect on January 1, 2021. Laboratories should utilize this chart as guidance to determining when changes to application requirements will affect them.

Certificate expires in 2020	Certificate expires in 2021	Certificate expires in 2022	Certificate expires in 2023	Certificate expires in 2024 or beyond
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No changes to application requirements</li> <li>• 2016 TNI Standard not required</li> <li>• On-site assessment report and corrective action plan required in application if certificate expires after Jan. 1, 2021, but ELAP is waiving this requirement</li> <li>• Current PT requirements in place</li> <li>• Interim certs expiring in 2020 do not require an application. ELAP will extend your cert until 2021, at which time you must apply and meet the requirements in the 2021 column to the right</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Changes to PT process if a result is scored "not acceptable" by vendor</li> <li>• 2016 TNI Standard not required</li> <li>• On-site assessment report and corrective action plan required in application, but ELAP is waiving this requirement</li> <li>• Interim certs expiring in 2021 do not require an application.
