

From: ", @EPA"
To: Rik Rasmussen
Date: 3/5/2012 2:35 PM
Subject: FW: Mercury in Reservoirs

From: Becky Wood [BWood@teichert.com]
Sent: Monday, March 05, 2012 2:05 PM
To: ", @EPA
Subject: Mercury in Reservoirs

Reservoir maintenance is important to maintain volume of water storage. This maintenance activity is a source of mineral resources to rural, local communities. It allows for meeting local demand without further disturbance of the area. This may result in a short term increase in mercury. Need to evaluate the long term impact of these short term increases. Impacts to mineral resources are required part of CEQA.

Becky L. Wood
EH&S Manager
Teichert Materials
916.484.3351