

Hi Folks,

I realize that Big Ag and Central Valley farmers want to keep the spigot open, but the value of a healthy SF Bay is higher than their water-intensive crops (Growing rice in the Central Valley near-desert? Give me a break!). After you get them to adopt water efficient irrigation practices, then we can talk about reducing the freshwater flows through the Bay. Until then, act like responsibly, not like Republican obstructionists.

--

Rob Means, 1421 Yellowstone Ave., Milpitas, CA 95035-6913
408-262-0420h, 408-262-8975w, rob.means@electric-bikes.com
