

Monterey County is used to rationing and the reward we get for working hard to ration is to kill our yards, trees and plants. NO WAY.....If you think that the program of saving fish that aren't endangered is more important than PEOPLE you have it all wrong. I have done my best to plant drought resistant plants. I don't plan on letting them die and you need to reconsider this new form of public blackmail.

Kathy Spake

