

Dear Jessica,

My husband and I have ripped out our front yard over the past year due to ridiculous water rate hikes and for water consumption reduction. This also included a fresh vegetable garden that provided nutritious food for my family. Many of our neighbors have done the same. We have no more to give. Please take this email as our opposition to this ridiculous idea.

Daniel and Corina Heerdink
9473 Podell Avenue
San Diego, CA. 92123