

In review of the proposed regulations it would appear that an undo burden is being placed on the States smallest suppliers, that do not produce or supply large amounts of water to their small customer base. It will be difficult to squeeze further reduction from small users. I would question why the R-GPCD was not applied to smaller water suppliers to assess required reduction

Leigh Ann Cullen
Board Member
Talmont Resort Improvement District, Tahoe City Ca