
From: Save the Stan <savethestan@gmail.com>
Sent: Monday, February 01, 2016 10:08 AM
To: Howard, Tom@Waterboards; Marcus, Felicia@Waterboards; Dadamo, Dorene@Waterboards; Moore, Steven@Waterboards; Doduc, Tam@Waterboards; Spivy-Weber, Frances@Waterboards; WateBoardsPublicAffairs, OPA@Waterboards
Subject: State needs to conserve water, too

State water board,

I oppose an increase in unimpaired flows on the Stanislaus River. In a time of conservation, everyone has to conserve -- even the state. I've lived on the Stanislaus for 40 years. Salmon are declining and the striped assure increasing. What the state doing is creating the opposite effect of what it says it wants.

Thank you.

Jeff McPhee
Oakdale