Subject: Comments on Low-Income rate assistance

Kathy,

Hello, I have attached information regarding the Drought Water Assistance Program (DWAP) which was a water rebate program in 2014 and 2015. We participated in this program from Community Services and Development. I believe it is a good model to follow to target low income families.

The contact for this program was:

Wilmer Brown and Sukie Montes

'Wilmer. Brown@CSD. CA. GOV' (Wilmer.Brown@CSD.CA.GOV)

Montes, Sukie@CSD Sukie.Montes@CSD.CA.GOV

Just in case you would like to make contact regarding the program, outcomes, and statistics of the program.

Thanks,

Sergio Hernandez

If a customer brings in bills for May, June and July, the total billing days for those bills will total 92 days. Agencies are not required to make deductions based on the amount of days in the 3 month period.
26. Does the client's water bill need to be "unpaid" in order for an agency to provide assistance? If so, consequently, customers will not pay their water bills and wait until they are three months behind before they apply and funding will be limited.	Clients are not required to have unpaid water bill in order to receive service.
