

Dear Sir or Madam,

Regarding your decision on the "copper" issue, it's typical of a government board not taking into consideration the needs of the people.

Your ruling is so outrageous, it'd be laughable if the consequences weren't so draconian.

I have boat in Marina del Rey, and I will do everything within my power to see your unconscionable decision overturned.

Skip Usen