

List of Prosecution Team Witnesses

Administrative Civil Liability Complaint No. R2-2020-1028

Param and Amandeep Dhillon

Assessor's Parcel Number 0052-160-090

Vallejo, California, Solano County

The following witnesses will be available to testify for the Prosecution Team at the Hearing:

1. Cleet Carlton, P.G., B.S., M.S., Geological Sciences, Engineering Geologist, will be available to testify on scientific issues regarding applicable regulatory requirements, conditions at the Dischargers' property, and telephone and electronic mail communications with the Dischargers, and the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Board's (Regional Water Board), and authenticity of photographs taken of the Dischargers' property.
2. Brian Thompson, P.G., C.H.G., C.E.G., B.S., M.S., Earth Sciences, Senior Engineering Geologist, will be available to testify on scientific and regulatory issues regarding applicable regulatory requirements, telephone, and electronic mail communications with the Dischargers, and the Regional Water Board's progressive enforcement process, generally.
3. Agnes Farres, M.S., Plant Ecology, Environmental Scientist, will be available to testify on scientific issues regarding applicable regulatory requirements, in-person, telephone, and electronic mail communications with the Dischargers, conditions at the Dischargers' property, applicable regulatory requirements, and authenticity of photographs taken of the Dischargers' property.
4. Keith Lichten, P.E., B.S., Civil and Environmental Engineering, M.L.A., Environmental Planning/Landscape Architecture, Division Chief, will be available to testify on scientific and regulatory issues regarding the Regional Water Board's wetland regulations.
5. Bill Johnson, B.S., M.S., Chemistry, Division Chief, will be available to testify on regulatory issues regarding the Regional Water Board's progressive enforcement process, generally.
6. Lisa McCann, B.A. Environmental Policy and Management, M.S. Hydrologic Science, Assistant Executive Officer, will be available to testify regarding the applicable regulatory requirements, and the Regional Water Board's progressive enforcement process, generally.
7. Thomas Mumley, P.E., B.S., Ph.D., Chemical Engineering, Assistant Executive Officer, will be available to testify regarding the applicable regulatory requirements, and the Regional Water Board's progressive enforcement process, generally.
8. Matthew Trujillo, B.S., M.S., Environmental Science and Management, Coastal Program Analyst II, San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, will be available to testify regarding in-person, telephone, and electronic mail communications with the Dischargers, site inspections conducted at the Dischargers' property, applicable regulatory requirements, and authenticity of photographs of the Dischargers' property.
9. Karen Donovan, Esq., Staff Counsel, , San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, will be available to testify regarding the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission's July 21, 2020, Violation Report for enforcement action.
10. German Myers, EIT, B.S., M.S., Environmental Engineering, Water Resource Control Engineer, will be available to provide expert testimony on financial evaluations for ability-to-pay analysis.