1. Substitute Environmental Documentation, page 8 of 51, “The OWTS Policy allows local agencies to implement a LAMP. The County of Riverside, which is subject to the jurisdiction of three Regional Water Boards, opted to develop a LAMP. When a county is under the jurisdiction of multiple Regional Water Boards, a single Regional Water Board is designated by the State Water Board to be the approving agency for that county’s LAMP. The Colorado River Regional Water Quality Control Board is the approving agency for the County of Riverside’s LAMP and approved it in Resolution No. R7-2016-0038 on ~~July 13, 2017~~ November 17, 2016.”
