24 ¹ Title 23 § 648.3. Evidence by Reference.

25 Public records of the Board that are relevant to the subject of the hearing, and books, reports, and other evidence that 26 have been prepared and published by a public agency, if otherwise admissible, may in the discretion of the Board be 27 received in evidence as exhibits by reference without the necessity of supplying copies to the Board and other parties, provided the original or a copy is in the possession of the Board and the specific file folder or other exact location 28 where it can be found is identified. The party offering an exhibit by reference shall designate the particular portions on which the party relies. Each exhibit shall be appropriately identified and designated in the record as an exhibit of the party offering the exhibit or an exhibit of Board staff.

1 The Chapter 8 of the FEIR/FEIS is available in the State Water Board Office of the 2 Chief Counsel's files, and can also be accessed the following State website:
