

STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS

Charles S. Armor

Education: Master of Arts. Biological Sciences, California State University, Chico, June 1976.

Bachelor of Arts. Biological Sciences, California State University, Chico, June 1971.

Employment: Associate Fishery Biologist, Department of Fish and Game, Bay-Delta Project, Stockton, CA. May 1985 to present.

Responsible for day to day operation of the Delta Outflow/S.F. Bay Study, study data management, and analysis of community level data.

Fishery Biologist, Department of Fish and Game, Bay-Delta Project, Stockton, CA. January 1980 to April 1985.

Collected fish and invertebrate samples, analyzed data and prepared reports on findings.

Water Quality Biologist, Department of Fish and Game, Region 5, Long Beach, CA. September 1977 to December 1979.

Reviewed waste discharge permits for all of southern California, assisted in pollution spill and 1601-03 investigations, conducted studies on acute and chronic effect of pollutants, conducted studies for and assisted 5 regional water quality control boards.