

Please do not release any more water for the San Joaquin-Delta smelt. Our farmers need it here for their crops. Our valley is already economically depressed. We have 15% unemployment and will have more if our farmers don't get their water. Also our food prices will sky rocket! Do not make our valley become a "dust bowl" because of a fish that isn't even native to the Delta.

Sincerely,
Betha Oostema